The three smartphone screens display the following content:

- Left screen: A chat conversation with 'Sam' discussing metadata. Messages include: 'Doesn't what's the CTX on the browser metadata?', 'Let me know what you think about that', and 'Metadata (what's the CTX on the browser metadata)'. A 'Message' button is at the bottom.
- Middle screen: The Session app onboarding screen with the title 'Privacy in your pocket.' and a 'Welcome to Session' message. It lists features: 'Session is engineered to protect your privacy', 'You don't even need a phone number to sign up', and 'Creating an account is instant, free, and anonymous'. Buttons for 'Create account' and 'I have an account' are visible.
- Right screen: A chat conversation with 'Sam' discussing privacy. Messages include: 'Welcome to the private side of', 'There are more things you can do I', 'I'll go look it for you', 'Found it', 'I'll download this pdf', 'I'll send it', 'You want the going through', 'I want that, in my group chat', and 'Here of course, thanks for asking'. A 'Message' button is at the bottom.
